

CAS Content Accessed Through Scilligence Modules

Terms of Use

These Terms of Use set forth the terms under which CAS, a division of the American Chemical Society, grants to your organization ("Licensee") a license to use the CAS Content in the Scilligence Corporation Module(s). CAS Content and Module(s) are defined below.

By accessing and using the CAS Content in the Module(s), Licensee accepts and agrees to be bound by these Terms of Use. These Terms of Use in no way supplement or replace such other agreement(s) between the Parties or Licensee's use of CAS solutions. For a complete list of the CAS Solutions portfolio visit www.cas.org.

Licensee acknowledges and agrees that any such notification to Licensee's impacted CAS Content users or other data subjects related to an Incident may be performed through electronic communication directed to the email address associated with CAS Content authorized users or other data subjects, if known.
      - d. General Terms. Should any part of these Terms of Use be unenforceable, all other provisions will not be affected. If either Party does not exercise any right provided for in these Terms of Use, this does not mean that such Party waives the right to exercise it in the future. Licensee may not assign or sublicense, without CAS's prior written consent, any rights, duties, or obligations under these Terms of Use to any person or entity, whether in whole or in part. On the effective date of termination of the License, the license granted herein is revoked, and Licensee will have no further rights to use the CAS Content.

Any conflict between any written or oral representations, commitments, agreement(s) or contract(s) between Scilligence Corporation and Licensee in any way related to the access or use of CAS Content and these Terms of Use shall be resolved in favor of these Terms of Use.
